Dear [REDACTED]

Thank you for your email to BTPA, which we are treating under the Freedom of Information Act.

I can advise you that nine members of staff at the British Transport Police Authority were paid under the PAYE system in October.

This completes our response to your request.

Yours sincerely

Dear Sir/Madam,

I am writing to make an open government request for information to which I am entitled under the Freedom of Information Act. In order to assist you with this request, I am outlining my query as specifically as possible. If, however, this request is too wide or too unclear, I would be grateful if you could contact me as I understand that under the act, you are required to advise and assist requesters.

Please would you provide me with a response to the following query:

How many staff were paid via the PAYE system last month?

I understand that under the act, I should be entitled to a response within 20 working days. I would be grateful if you could confirm electronically that you have received this request. Should the fulfilment of this request incur any charges, please provide details of what those charges would be and for what reason they would be incurred.

I look forward to hearing from you.

Your faithfully,
