

EQUALITY STANDARD FOR THE POLICE SERVICE 2009/10

2.3 Crime Impacts Focus	THE POLICE SERVICE RESPONDS TO LOCAL CONCERNS ABOUT SERIOUS CRIME
--	--

BASELINE (B)		DEVELOPING (D)		GOOD PRACTICE (G)
Baseline meets the following criteria	➔	Developing meets the following criteria as well as Baseline	➔	Good Practice meets the following criteria as well as Baseline and Developing
2.3.1B The organisation ensures that the workforce understands how serious crimes (such as Hate Crime, Violent Sexual Offences, Domestic Violence and "Honour-Based" Crime*) affect diverse communities and individuals	➔	2.3.1D The organisation and its partners engage with local communities to run a developing programme of initiatives that address the particular concerns in communities	➔	2.3.1G The organisation demonstrates a link between engagement that agrees initiatives to address serious crime and an increased level of understanding and confidence within communities
2.3.2B The organisation maps serious crimes of local concern against cultural and diversity data held on local communities, and uses the information to increase police ability to respond effectively and sensitively	➔	2.3.2D The organisation evaluates alternative and third party reporting arrangements and sustains those which are demonstrably effective	➔	2.3.2G Communities and individuals report satisfaction that the organisation responds to local concerns about serious crime

* In some locations, Gun and Knife Crime are likely to be included because of local impacts and concerns