Dear [REDACTED]

Thank you for your email in which you asked us for the following information:

Whether or not in the last 3 years a police authority panel has been convened as a result of a request from a Chief Constable to hear a case to decide whether a police officer should be dismissed as a result of an allegation of having an incompatible business interest under section 7 police regulations 2003. If so what was the business interest and what was the result.

I can confirm that no such police authority panel has been convened.

Yours faithfully
